

Practice Direction No. 2 of 2019

WRITTEN SUBMISSIONS

- (1) Subject to (4) below, written submission by any party in any appeal to the Court of Appeal and the High Court shall not exceed 5,000 words (or fewer if so directed by the court). The total number of words used shall be stated at the conclusion of the submission.
- (2) Any party may apply to the court, in writing at least 28 days before the hearing of the appeal, to waive the above direction. Such application shall state the reasons that 5,000 words is considered insufficient and shall state the number of words considered necessary.
- (3) Together with the written submissions, the parties must file an index of the authorities to which it is intended the court be referred, with a brief statement of the proposition of law for which each authority is cited and the passage(s) to be relied on.
- (4) When the appeal is a criminal appeal against sentence the limit shall be 3,000 words.
